

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

War Between the British and Boers Thought to Be Over.

A Member of the House of Commons Says He Believes Everything Is Settled and the British Terms Are Liberal.

London, May 24.—Peace in South Africa is practically secured. How soon it will be announced depends, apparently, more upon the convenience of the Boer leaders than upon the inclination of the British government. The private and official advices received in London from South Africa all point to the same conclusion. The delay is technical, and to end the long war seems to be the desire of both British and Boer leaders. The latter, however, are unable to convince all their followers of the wisdom of acquiescing to the terms of peace.

Information as to what transpired at the meeting of the cabinet is closely guarded, but it is not likely that the cabinet transactions were of vital import. The surmise of one well informed person places the sum total of the deliberations of the cabinet ministers at a decision regarding points of the peace agreement of entirely minor importance. Another surmise is that the cabinet has already sent a rather mock ultimatum to South Africa which can be used by the Boer leaders in explanation to their forces. Both these surmises probably contain an element of truth, but neither can in any way affect the widespread belief in the best informed quarters that the end of the war has come. In fact, those persons who are best acquainted with the actual details of the present negotiations only qualify this optimistic expression of opinion by guarded reservations on ascertaining the extent of the personal control of the Boer leaders over their commands. Were the Boers a thoroughly disciplined force, dependent upon the action of their general officers, peace would probably be proclaimed at once; but both De Wet and the other generals seem themselves unable to positively guarantee the degree to which their example will be followed.

The delegates at Vereeniging, according to information in possession of the war office, are fairly evenly divided. Consequently extreme precautions are exercised both in London and Pretoria to prevent any premature action or report that might adversely influence the burghers.

The most pessimistic forecast heard Friday night only admits that a few isolated bands of irreconcilables may be left in the field.

A member of the house of commons, who is in close touch with the government, said to a press representative that he believed everything was settled and that the British terms had been found unexpectedly liberal.

Berlin, May 24.—The foreign office here has been advised from Pretoria that peace in South Africa is practically concluded. The articles of surrender are ready to be signed, with the exception that the approval of the British cabinet of the wording of the secondary provision is awaited. The suspension of hostilities may be announced at any hour. This intelligence, it is understood, reached Baron von Richteffer, the foreign secretary, through a privileged cipher cablegram from the German consul at Pretoria.

LORD PAUNCEFOTE DEAD.

The Distinguished British Diplomat Passes Away in Washington.

Washington, May 25.—Lord Pouncefote, British ambassador to the United States, died at the embassy, this city, Saturday morning, after an illness of several days.

At the bedside when the distinguished diplomat passed away were Mrs. Pouncefote, the Honorable Maude Pouncefote, Miss Sybil and Miss Audrey, Dr. T. F. Young and Mr. Radford, one of the clerks attached to the embassy.

As soon as it became generally known that Lord Pouncefote was dead, flags were half-masted over the different embassies and legations. At the Arlington hotel, where the visiting Frenchmen who had come to witness the Rochambeau statue unveiling are stopping, the French flag was placed at half mast.

Immediately upon being notified of the death of Lord Pouncefote, Secretary Hay went to the white house, and, after a short conference with the president, proceeded directly to the British Embassy, where he made a formal call of condolence as the personal representative of the president, preliminary to the call which the president was himself to make later in the day. Then returning to the state department Secretary Hay dispatched the following cablegram:

"Department of state, May 24, 1902. 'The Marquis of Lansdowne, London: Permit me to express my deep sympathy and sorrow at the death of Lord Pouncefote. His Majesty's Government has lost a most able and faithful servant and his country a valued friend. John Hay.'"

Washington, May 26.—With the exception of a few details the arrangements for the funeral services over the remains of Lord Pouncefote, the British ambassador, who died Saturday morning, are now complete.

Lady Pouncefote Sunday signified her approval of the arrangements tentatively made Saturday, by which services are to be held Wednesday at noon in St. John's Episcopal church, after which the body is to be temporarily deposited in a receiving vault at Rock Creek cemetery. A military escort will be provided by the war department to attend the funeral, which will be of a state character. A large number of messages of condolence from all over the world were received at the embassy Sunday, but they were not made public.

EXPOSED TO VIEW.

The Statue to Gen. Count De Rochambeau Unveiled.

Washington, May 26.—Amid the enthusiastic demonstrations of a great concourse of people the superb bronze statue of Gen. Count de Rochambeau, who brought the forces of France across the sea at the hours of greatest peril in the American revolution, was unveiled Saturday. Seldom has an event presented so many brilliant features of pageantry and at the same time given occasion for the manifestation of the strong bonds of friendship existing between the French republic and the United States.

The members of the French mission which came to Washington to attend the ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the Rochambeau statue, finished their visit here Sunday and Sunday night left the city for Niagara Falls on their week's tour of the east before sailing for home. There were no formal functions on the programme for the day, but the visitors found every minute of their time occupied in attending divine service, returning numerous calls, official and otherwise and in drives about the city and suburbs.

Annapolis, Md., May 26.—The American escort to the French battleship Gaulois, which arrived in the Annapolis roads last Wednesday, weighed anchor early Sunday morning and proceeded down the bay to the Virginia capes, where they will await the arrival of the visiting man-of-war. The Gaulois did not leave her anchorage until several hours after the departure of the American ships. Adm. Higginson's squadron, the Olympia, Kearsarge and Alabama, will escort the Gaulois to New York and Boston and remain in attendance upon the visiting battleship until the Rochambeau commission takes its departure for home.

WILL NOT STRIKE.

The Colliery Engineers and Pumpmen Refuse to Go Out.

Shamokin, Pa., May 26.—By a vote of 43 to 15 the colliery engineers and pumpmen, at a mass meeting here Sunday evening, resolved not to go on strike June 2, even if the operators refused to grant an eight-hour work day at the present wage scale. Secretary George Hartlein, of the Ninth district executive board, United Mine Workers, addressed the meeting and urged his hearers to join in the general strike if the coal operators refused to grant the eight-hour work day.

SWEEP BY A TORNADO.

Six Persons Killed and Others Injured at Union, S. C.

A Knitting Mill, School House and Two Residences Caught the Full Force and Were Converted Into Kindling Wood.

Union, S. C., May 26.—Six people were killed and several injured by a tornado which swept over this section of the state at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The main storm came from the north. It seems there was also one from the southwest and that both met in this vicinity. The storm from the north was preceded by a heavy rain and what appeared to be a dark mass of clouds about 100 yards wide which traveled with great speed. One wing of the storm passed along Main street and blew in several store fronts, doing much damage to stocks.

Knitting Mill hill, south of town, caught the full force of the tornado, which blew down the school house and two residences there, converting them literally into kindling wood. The occupants ran from one of the houses when it went to pieces and took refuge in another nearby, but this house was also crushed to splinters. In this house Misses Sallie Hart and Annie Lawson were instantly killed, Mrs. Maxey Sims died in an hour and her little daughter, Vera, died about 9 o'clock. Maxey Sims escaped with broken fingers. Lee Sims received several cuts on the head from falling timbers and was internally injured. Mr. Mabrey sustained a fractured shoulder and his leg was badly burned by a stove falling on him. He was also internally injured and may die. Mrs. Lee Sims received a bad, but not fatal, cut on the head. Mrs. Mabrey and her two other children escaped with slight injuries.

It took some time to get the victims from the debris. Every physician in town was called and were assisted by the citizens in relieving the sufferers as much as possible. Everything that the families had was destroyed.

Jonesville reports that the storm was fearful at that place, and that a member of the family of Miss Lawson, who was killed there, was one of the victims.

The property damage here will aggregate $50,000, divided among a number of stores and cotton mills. Pacolet also reports one killed and several injured.

MURDER IN CHURCH.

Near Atlanta Millard Lee Shot and Killed Miss Lilla Suttle.

Atlanta, Ga., May 26.—Five or six hundred men divided into a half dozen posses were Sunday night searching the country adjacent to this city for Millard Lee, 20 years of age, the son of a well to do farmer, who Sunday shot and killed Miss Lilla Suttle, a young woman of 19, at Wesley Chapel, Mt. Gilead camp grounds, nine miles from Atlanta.

Just as the minister had finished the benediction and before any of the worshipers left the church, Lee, who was sitting behind Miss Suttle, leaned forward and fired at her. The first ball entered her back, but no vital part was reached and an instant later Lee fired again, killing the girl instantly. While the churchgoers stood astounded Lee backed out of the door and started for the woods. On the way he met a man named Childress, to whom he confessed the murder and asked Childress to take the revolver and kill him. Childress paid no attention to the young man and passed on.

Miss Suttle, who was a beautiful young woman, had refused Lee's attentions, it is said, because she considered herself above him socially.

Bouhours, of Paris, fell in the race, but got up and resumed riding.

To Retire Gen. Wheaton. Washington, May 26.—Maj. Gen. Lloyd Wheaton, who is about to start home from the Philippines, will be retired July 1 next by operation of law on account of age. Gen. Wheaton is a native of Michigan.

MORE ERUPTIONS.

Consternation at Chateau, Belair, Island of St. Vincent.

Kingstown, Island of St. Vincent, B. W. I., Saturday, May 24.—Another eruption the night of Sunday, May 18, caused a greater fall of ashes and stones and more consternation at Chateau Belair, Island of St. Vincent, than resulted from the eruption of May 7.

Shortly after the appearance of a cloud May 18, which was belched from the mountain, Egyptian darkness enveloped the village of Chateau Belair. The inhabitants rent the air with shrieks and groped against the banks of the road leading to Cumberland in their efforts to flee from the threatened danger. Many persons had limbs broken. The darkness lasted one hour, but the exodus from Chateau Belair continued all night.

Detonations and smoke and lava from the volcano continued the next day, May 19, and the people still tried to leave Chateau Belair for Kingstown and other towns. A heavy rainfall occurred at Chateau Belair the 19th, the first in the district for two months, and the streets, huts and shops were flooded.

As the volcanic eruptions diminished after the 19th some 30 of the inhabitants returned to Chateau Belair. But they are still apprehensive. Kingstown is longing for rain. The heat and dryness here is unprecedented. There is no hope for the resuscitation of the Caribbean country for years to come. The canal that supplied water to that country for domestic or manufacturing purposes has dried up, and the districts desolated. The government is treating for the purchase of an estate upon which to settle the refugees and carpenters who are engaged in erecting huts, on safe locations, to relieve the congestion in Kingstown.

The cloud that issued from the crater Sunday night was visible to the inhabitants of the neighboring island of St. Lucia, and inspired them with awe. Vivid flashes of lightning were seen on the morning of the 19th, and these were accompanied by slight volcanic rumblings.

The number of new craters in the district can not be ascertained, as ascent of the mountain is impossible, but there are apparently four active craters there. Rumbling sounds are heard and vapor is still issuing from different portions of the mountain, and the lava is flowing. Mt. Enham shows no distinct signs of activity. The United States Dixie arrived here yesterday with 900,000 rations and clothing, medicine and supplies.

The interruption of the cable between here and the island of St. Lucia has caused delay in the transmission of messages.

Paris, May 26.—In his official report to the French government on the entire Martinique disaster Gov. l'Huerre, of Martinique, estimates the dead there at 30,000.

CO-OPERATIVE MOVEMENT.

Kansas Wheat Elevators and Flouring Mills to Combine.

Kansas City, Mo., May 26.—Walter Vrooman, of the western co-operative movement, has closed contracts for the purchase of six of the largest wheat elevators in the Kansas wheat belt and two of the largest flouring mills. The price paid is said to have been $750,000, and Mr. Vrooman, who has left for New York to complete the financial end of the plan, says the present purchase is but the beginning of a movement to center the farmers of Kansas in a co-operative branch of the Vrooman Co-operative Co. The concern will be known as the Wheat and Flour Western Co-operative Co. The farmers are to be taken into the scheme upon the payment of $100 each or which they are to receive the market value of their wheat sold to the company and in addition will receive one-half of the profit derived, the other half going to co-operative stores through which the wheat and flour will be handled.

"The plan," said Mr. Vrooman, "is to eliminate wheat speculators and the middlemen. The farmers are in earnest sympathy with the movement. It is the only way to head off the talk of flour trust that is forming in New York."

It is intended to ship to Great Britain, to be sold among the co-operative members there, the surplus product not disposed of in Kansas and Missouri.

DEPENDS ON PLACE OF BIRTH.

Just Because One Has Seen Snow One May Not Know All About Everything.

When the young man from Florida came to live in New York he woke up one morning last winter and, going to the window, he looked out on what was to him a novel scene. It was a snowstorm, the first he had ever seen.

Jumping into his clothes, he ran into the street. He stooped and gathered handfuls of snow and threw them in the air; he jumped into a drift and sent it flying with his feet; he finally lay down and rolled in it—all this time shouting and laughing at the top of his voice.

One of the crowd which had gathered to watch his antics went up to him and told him how his mother used to cure fits and volunteered to try it on him.

"I haven't any," the young man said.

"What's the matter with you, then?"

"Why, don't you see the snow?"

"Yes, I see it. What of it? I have seen it before."

"Well, I haven't," said the Florida young man.

"What! You never saw snow before?"

asked the astonished questioner.

"Never. Seems strange to you, don't it?"

"It beats any sample of veracity I ever ran across."

"Oh, I don't know," mused the Florida stranger, according to the New York Mail and Express. "Did you ever see an alligator eating a black boy? No? Well, you are not so many, after all. I have seen it many times." And, throwing a handful of snow down his shirt collar, he pursued his joyous gambols.

MILWAUKEE PEOPLE

Could Hardly Believe It. A Prominent Woman Saved From Death by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suppose a large number of people who read of my remarkable cure will hardly believe it; had I not experienced it myself, I know that I should not.

"I suffered for months with troubles peculiar to women which gradually broke down my health and my very life. I was nearly insane with pain at times, and no human skill I consulted in Milwaukee could bring me relief.

"My attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; the first bottle brought relief, and the second bottle an absolute cure. I could not believe it myself, and felt sure it was only temporary, but blessed fact, I have now been well for a year, enjoy the best of health, and cannot in words express my gratitude. Sincerely yours, SADIE E. KOCH, 124 10th St., Milwaukee, Wis."

SUFFERED 25 YEARS

With Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Cured.

Congressman Botkin, of Winfield, Kan.

In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman Congressman Botkin says:

"My Dear Doctor—It gives me pleasure to certify to the excellent curative qualities of your medicines—Peruna and Manalin. I have been afflicted more or less for a quarter of a century with catarrh of the stomach and constipation. A residence in Washington has increased these troubles. A few bottles of your medicine have given me almost complete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure.—J. D. Botkin.

Mr. L. F. Verdery, a prominent real estate agent, of Augusta, Ga., writes:

"I have been a great sufferer from catarrhal dyspepsia. I tried many physicians, visited a good many springs, but I believe Peruna has done more for me than all of the above put together. I feel like a new person."—L. F. Verdery.

The most common form of summer catarrh is catarrh of the stomach. This is generally known as dyspepsia. Peruna cures these cases like magic.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
